

FIRSTHAND

---

Hello,

It's hard to believe we already almost half way through April! Time sure is flying by so far this year. We don't have a ton to cover in this newsletter, but we do ask that you please fill out the survey listed below regarding the manage user reporting. And hopefully these April showers will start to bring those May flowers soon!

Survey

At Firsthand we strive to help people in early and mid career develop the confidence and tools they need to build fulfilling and productive careers. We understand that careers are rarely linear, predictable or structured and put our energy to help you build your community's confidence, set and maintain boundaries, and step up your vision of success in a way that's sustainable and unique. To ensure you get the most out of your platform, please complete the form below to give the Firsthand team some info on how you utilize manage user reporting.
